THERAPIES

Life Alignment helps us to heal areas of life such as health and wellbeing, family and relationships, home, career and workplace, creativity and life purpose as well as the environment around us such as food, water, air etc.

Life Alignment is an integrated collection of energy healing systems which include: Body Spin, Body Alignment Technique, Life Purpose Alignment, Vortex Alignment and Home Alignment.

What happens during a Life Alignment Balance?

Firstly, we always work with the body's priority allowing it to guide us so we bypass what we "think" we "should" be doing. This guidance is shown through energy testing (also known as muscle testing) and/or dowsing with a pendulum. This in itself is an interesting and revealing experience!

Once the healing system has been decided the session (which is referred to as a "balance") starts. You will be lying on a couch, fully clothed whereby your body communicates answers to questions and an issue or challenge is brought up for healing. This "block" will be stored somewhere in the body and will come to the surface. The practitioner's purpose is to guide you through finding your own answers and making your own discoveries so awareness, understanding and transformation takes place.

Healing Systems

Body Spin works by activating energetic gateways to the body located at the chakras and joints where two Vortex cards are used in a spiral motion to open a vortex, hence the name Body Spin. It is a rapid and powerful balancing technique that can be applied to any issue and can be used as a stand-alone system or integrated with other healing systems.

Body Alignment is the foundation and heart of Life Alignment. All parts of the body are in constant communication with each other and this technique enables the practitioner to acquire information in greater details as to what is inter-connected with a particular imbalance or issue. This technique provides the technology to resolve deep emotional issues, releasing them from the body.

Vortex Alignment brings a revolutionary technology and an invaluable dimension to Life Alignment, through the use of highly energised magnetic cards that work on the inner environment (the body) and the outer environment. For the body, the cards help to accelerate the healing process. Relative to the environment, they help to protect us from geopathic stress from the earth, and from the harmful electromagnetic radiation emitted by cellular/mobile phones, electrical appliances, high tension wires, etc. They also assist in balancing our food, water, air, homes and workplaces.

Home Alignment Like the physical body, the energy in our homes can become blocked due to electromagnetic disturbances, geopathic stress, negative energy from people, and our personal life issues. These energetic blockages that cause stress are released through Home Alignment techniques, helping to restore harmony, health and vitality. Home Alignment brings us into harmony with our place in the greater home – the Cosmos.
